

BARN RULES

- Close any/all gates or other escape barriers on doors, etc., behind you
- Make sure tack room(s) are locked before you leave
- Clean up after yourself and your horse in the aisles, arena(s), crossties, and driveways
- Aisles are to be kept clear of clutter, personal items, etc. for safety; please use tack room for storage
- No smoking anywhere on the property
- No dogs permitted on property.
- No alcohol intoxication or drugs of abuse on the premises
- Turn the lights out when you leave, make sure tack room(s), office, are locked,
- No entering another client's stall or handling, riding, etc., another client's horse unless express permission has been given by the owner in writing to management, or unless it is an emergency and no Affinia staff are on premises, if an emergency contact Affinia Mgr. immediately.
- No reckless, dangerous, or grossly inconsiderate riding or other horse handling behavior is permitted; please be considerate of each other.
- Please do not tie your horse to a stall front or any beams/posts in the aisles or arena. Please use a crosstie area or a tie attached to the inside stall wall.
- Do not use anyone else's tack or equipment without express permission from the owner;
- No abuse of any animal on the premises will be tolerated at any time and would be considered grounds for eviction from the stable;
- Barn hours will be from 8am to 10 pm unless special circumstances (illness of horse, prep for show, etc.) necessitate additional time-please advise barn management in advance if possible
- Although not mandatory, Affinia Farm strongly encourages the wearing of safety helmets when riding, and proper footwear/boots, especially for minors under 18 years of age;
- Please put away any equipment (cones, training aids, jumps, etc.) you used in the arena(s) when finished.
- Boarders may take lessons with their own personal trainer at Affinia Farm-please contact Affinia manager to work out a schedule for this/use of the facility at a specific date/time, etc.

Affinia Farm wants all of our clients to enjoy their horses in a relaxing, fun atmosphere. We want you to know that you are important to us, and we wish to create and maintain an environment here that is warm and welcoming to everyone. Our clients should feel confident that their horses are cared for by our staff in a professional manner, with kindness and consideration that is to be expected at a quality horse facility.

If you have any questions or concerns whatsoever, please feel free to contact our management staff-we are happy to be of assistance!